MARLBOROUGH AS A HERO. Since his arrival in London Friday, from South Africa, the young Duke of Marlborough has modestly told the story of his experiences in the Transvaul, and he is now in a fair way to be lionized as a hero. The Duke had a most interesting experience, and, though participating in many fights, and undergoing long marches, came through without a scratch or a day's illness.

After leaving Bloemfontein, where he was attached to Lord Roberts' staff, the Duke joined General Hamilton, acting as "galloper" for him during the bardfought progress toward Pretoria.

The Duke had several narrow es-capes. On one occasion a shell turst within a few feet of him. A fragment bit General Hamilton in the small of the back and knocked him down, but by luck it failed to penetrate. The Duke of Mariborougd escaped all the flying fragments. Entering Pretoria aread of the army, the Duke of Mariborough, accompanied only by his cousin, Winston Caurchill, rode out to the inclosure where the British officers were imprisoned. They at first took him for a Boer, but when he was recognized they set up a howl of delight.

A Boer sentry raised his gon and a most fired point black but the Boer commandant stopped him and surrendered to the Duke of Marihorough, who prompily put the Boers within the inclosure. The British officers, pale and with heards of six months' growth, cried, laughed and cheered like mad men. Then they hoisted a Union Jack, made during their captivity out of stolen virkleur and treas red up till that long expected moment.

The duke's relatives are working to get him appointed Lord Chamberlain, one of the most important posts in the royal household, carrying great influence at court. The place demands tact and experience which, it is feared, the Duke lacke, but his volunteering for the war has given him a claim to a better place than Paymester General, which he resigned.

The Duke of Marlborough has re turned home because Gen. Hamilton's staff has been broken up, Hamilton not needing his services longer. The duke says he is proud of his yoemsnry though he was with them but a short time. He was immensely struck with the Canadians and perfectly satisfied that the British soldier, especially the infantry, is as good as any in the world. He believes the Boer resistence will be continued at any rate till November, as they are firmly convinced that if the democrats are successful in the presi-dential election the United States will intervene in the Boers' behalf.

BULL TREED GOLFERS .- Infuriated by the red coats of golf players, a big black bull dashed upon the Lake Gol Club's links at Lake Mahopac, N. Y. Practical Machinists and Engine 18 on Saturday, tossed Lee Fink, a law student of New York, about ten feet and forced all the other players to climb trees. All the players were New Yorkers, and their dress include-bright red coats and red peak caps. Fink's presence of mind in discarding his cost and cap saved his life.

J. Lester Wallach, of Brooklyn, when the bull dashed at Fink, pulled off his own coat and waved it at the bull. The bull made a dash at Wallach. sach, and forced him to climb a tree. Louis Kalvin came down from his tree too early and the bull made him run for his life. He jumped over a fence when the animal was less than three yards behind him. The members of the club will change their clothes before they play again. GAVE $100 000 TO ELECT BRYAN.-Ex-Senator Clark, the multi-millionaire mine owner, of Montana, before he sailed from New York for Europe on Saturday on the Lucania, gave $100,000 to the Bryan campaign fund. Besides giving his check for $100,000 Mr. Clark has agreed to furnish all the democratic campaign money required in the State of Maniana. His triends again. of Montana. His triends say he will spend at least $500,000 rather than see the electoral vote of Montana cast for McKipley. After admitting these facts Mr. Clark said: "I contributed to the democratic campaign fund because I think the election of Bryan and Stevenson would be a great benifit to the courtry. The campaign committee will need funds for printing and circulating literature."

After many intricate experiments scientists have discovered methods for obtaining all the natural digestants. These have been combined in the proportion found in the human body and united with substances that build body and united with substances that outle up the digestive organs, making a compound called Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and allows all dyspeptics to eat pleuty of neurishing food while the stemach troubles are being radically cured by the medicinal agents it contains. It is pleasant to take and will give quick relief.

It has been demonstrated by experience that consumption can be prevented by the early use of One Minute Cough Cure. This is the favorite remedy for coughs, colds, croup, asthms, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. Cures quickly.

QUESTION ANSWERED. · Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grand* mothers never thought of using any-thing else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendictis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Ernest L. Allen, Claud M.
